Garrard was the incumbent, and of course had an advantage over Capt. Neale, a new candidate. Meantime, however, Garrard has died, and a dispatch to a Cincinnati paper states that Gov. Bramlette has signified his intention of the testatrix. Miss Robinson was already of appointing Capt. Neale as Treasurer. Col. John Mason Brown has been appointed to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

Last November, the vote of Kentucky stood -Lincoln 27,786; McClellan 64,301: pro-Slavery majority, 36,515. The aggregate poll is just about the same now, and the pro-Slavery majority is reduced to 168, if not to 67. ing an estate of from two to three millions. Of this she gave about one million in legacies to different individuals, not her heirs at law-to her physician, to other friends, to the City of New-Bedford for public uses, to an Orphan Asylum, and to the Boston National Sailers' Home. She left to trustees the rest of her estate, the net income to be paid to Miss Robinson, daughter of Edward Mott Robinson, late of this city, the niece of the testatrix and her heir whole of the residuary estate is to be divided among the lineal descendants of the grandfather one of the wealthiest women in America, haring received from her father one million of dollars, and the income of from two to three millions vested in the hands of trustees. She has seen fit to contest the validity of her aunt's will upon the ground of undue influence and incompetency; but after a long examination the Judge last week admitted the will to probate. of Probate, remains to be seen. The testimony adduced went very clearly to show the competency of the testatrix; nor did the contestant We have alluded to this case partly because

His name and his political career are in- Feeling sure that its validity would be contested Court would have had only the professional opinion of Dr. Gorden, the regular physician of the testatrix, and who, under the will, is a party interested in sustaining it. It seems to us that whenever there is the least probability that the soundness of mind of a testator will be want of labor, and because the great majority be employed in drafting and attending to the self, for we take it for granted that no honest should come to Louisiana rather than that imbecile. Nobody cant ell what issue that Planters should seek it in Brazil, where it hap-case would have had, but for the testimony of
